Prime Cattle - 14th Of December, 2020

Elders Kerr & Co sold an outstanding run of Angus Weaner Steers today on behalf of The Stewart Family. A Pen of 7 making to a top of 449c/kg, returning $1125.71 and a heavier pen of 9 steers making 438c/kg or $1396.73 per head.

Total Yarding: 543

Agents penned 543 mainly good quality cattle in their last prime sale for the year, 207 less. A similar number of buyers attended the market but not all operated in the mainly equal to cheaper sale. Yearlings were the exception with prices unchanged to 10c/kg higher, especially for restocker purchases. The milk vealers made an average of 10c less with some sales up to 30c/kg back. Grown steers were fully equal but cows lost 25c/kg.

Milk vealers sold from 374c to 410c and were mostly heifers while the steer portion were selling from 358c to 425c/kg and all went to restockers. Yearlings were making 323c from 388c for most and top sales made 397c, 410c and 420c with restockers selling to 449c/kg for steers to turn out. The smaller and plainer selection of grown steers made from 302c to 350c with grown heifers selling from 290c to 344c/kg. Beef cows sold from 250c to 291c with dairy and crossbred cows making from 229c to 265c/kg. There were more bulls this week and they mainly sold from 240c to 260c/kg.
