WVLX Market Report Feature Female Sale - 12th January, 2023

Yarding: 1,620

There were over 1600 heifers and cows yarded at the January Feature Female Sale in Mortlake, the majority comprising of PTIC heifers, as well as a couple of dispersal lines of cows and the usual cows & calves.

Cows & calves topped at $3600ph for a pen of Angus cows back in calf again with spring drop calves at foot on account of JS & SJ Taylor Business Trust.

There was a large offering of PTIC heifers with major lines including Nampara Pastoral Company selling through Elders and JM Ellis & Co, consistently making from $3400-4000ph for their Angus PTIC heifers, while their Angus Hereford X and Angus Simmental X made between $2700-2950ph.

There were also a couple of great dispersal lines of cows sold, including those on account of JF & AI McDonnell that topped at $3400ph through Southern Grampians Livestock, as well as the Castaldo Angus cows that Charles Stewart Nash McVilly sold, topping at $3300ph. These were a magnificent line up of dispersal cows that sold accordingly.

There was also a handful of Angus bulls sold as a dispersal run at the end of the day which topped at $5200ph on account of JF & AI McDonnell.

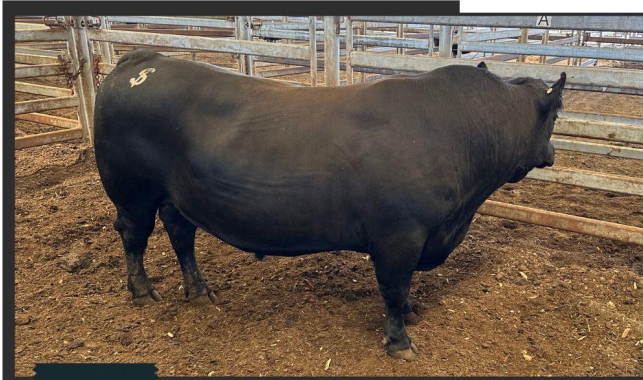

All in all a quality yarding of cattle with everything selling in accordance to where the current job is. There will be a store sale next Thursday 19th January starting at 10am in Mortlake.
